

Invitation

In the context of the Arts for Social Development project organized by EUNIC (European Union National Institutes for Culture), the Swedish Institute at Athens cordially invites you to a workshop led by:

LIVSTYCKET, B. Notlöf, Sweden

ARSIS, A. Antoniou, Greece

ANASA, M. Afolayan, Greece

QNUSHYO, Ö. Cetrez, Turkey

This workshop brings together NGOs and voluntary organizations using arts and artistic creativity as a working method to support and help immigrants, refugees and other minority groups with their integration, learning, mental and social change.

Our purpose is to provide a platform for the exchange of experiences, ideas and knowledge in a field that has shown important potential for integration as well as for improved quality of life. The participants will also have the opportunity to examine and discuss ways of social entrepreneurship.

An exhibition of work done by the NGOs will take place alongside the workshop.

When and where

The event is open to the public and held on Thursday, March 3, 2016, 10:00 – 15:00 at the Swedish Institute at Athens, Mitseon 9, Akropoli Metro station. The working language is English.

R.S.V.P. Tuesday, March 1, at 4 p.m.
