

THE ATHENS GREEK RELIGION SEMINAR SPRING 2023

- February 14 Oliver Pilz: A Cult Statue of Aphrodite from Gerasa (Jerash)
- March 14: Gina Salapata: Male Boiotian Bust-Protomes: From Technique to Religious Meaning.
- March 29: Round Table Discussion in Collaboration with the Roman Seminar
Silvana Blazevska, Dafni Maikidou-Poutrinou & Barbetta Spaeth:
Aspects of The Cult of Isis in Roman Greece
- April 4 Saskia Peels-Matthey: Understanding Gods as Networks of Meaning: Some Case Studies Considered
- April 25 Marion Meyer: Death of a Parthenos: The Case(s) of Aglauros
- May 16: Marcella Boglione: Relics of Ritual Performances at the Piano del Tamburino - Himera
- June 6: Sandra Blakely: The Anthropology of an Island Cult: Myth, Complexity, and Maritime Networks of the Mysteries of the Great Gods of Samothrace
- June 20: Vinciane Pirenne-Delforge & Gabriella Pironti: Rethinking Greek Goddesses: From Aphrodite to Hera

All seminars take place at 17h (Athens time) with live presence at the Swedish Institute at Athens and via Zoom link.
More details about each seminar and its registration procedure will be available on our website at www.sia.gr.

Welcome!