

ATHENS GREEK RELIGION SEMINAR

THE ATHENS GREEK RELIGION SEMINAR SPRING 2024

- February 6 Olga Palagia: A Cult Statue of Dionysus from a Private Sanctuary of the Second Century BC in Piraeus
- February 27 Wolf-Dietrich Niemeier: The Sanctuary of Athena at Miletus. Cult Continuity from the Minoan period to the Persian Destruction of 494 BC
- March 12 Tulsi Parikh: Rethinking the Ancient Greek Temenos: Boundary or Frame ?
- April 2 Susan Deacy: 'I Danced Myself Right Out the Womb': Athena, Dance and Movement in Ancient Greek Religion
- April 23 Riccardo Di Cesare & Germano Sarcone: The Sanctuary of the Archaic Acropolis at Hephaistia (Lemnos): New Data on Cult and Ritual Practices in Their Context.
- May 14 Filippo Lepori: Why Does Zeus Care About Burnt Thighbones Only? Burnt Animal Bones at Thysia Sacrifice Between the Homeric Poems and Zooarchaeological Evidence from the Late Bronze Age and Early Iron Age
- June 11 Rebecca van Hove: Divine and Human Authority in Early Cretan law

All seminars take place at 17h (Athens time) at the Swedish Institute at Athens, Mitseon 9, and via zoom link. More details about each seminar and its registration procedure will be available on our website at www.sia.gr.

Welcome!